April 16, 2001 minutes reviewed and 2 corrections made: (1) page1, delete last sentence of president report and replace with "He lives in grey area and should look to River City League as possible option.î, (2) top of page 3, second paragraph, replace $250 with "up to $500" per player and replace $1000 with "up to $2000" per year. Add sentence: "No player will get more than $500 and the annual Budget shall not exceed $2000.î

Reports

President

District VI meeting notes:

1. Submit "working" roster for Metro teams by June 6. No late applications.
2. Recreational Coordinator for District is Danny Marques (363-5213).
Danny volunteered to help CVYSL with Halloween tournament. Robert Ford will contact Danny.
3. For Referee Clinics - contact Tom Starr.
4. New NCYSA Policy - no age restriction to be coach but need a valid CA I.D. card and need an adult manager at least 18 years of age. Clubs/teams can make more restrictive rules.

Vice President

CVYSL Board member shirts will be available by June 13 District Meeting (25 shirts cost $839).

Treasurer (absent, no report)

Registrar

WinReg is a problem so be patient with registrars.

Coach Coordinator

- 1) Billy scheduling Coach courses.
- 2) One E/D clinic this year at Elk Grove, 2 weekends. One National D clinic at Sonoma.

Referee Coordinator (no report)

Metro Coordinator

Five Handouts provided: (a) District VI changes to Metro League Constitution, By Laws, & Rules, (b) Metro Calendar of Events, (c) 2001 Metro Team Application, (d) Dangers of Concussions, and (e) Summary of May 10 Metro Meeting.

(Meeting Summary: *Metro Team applications due June 6. Cost $30/team, increase in fee pending. Minimum of 13 players on application. One Check from League for all clubs.

*A field name in a league must be listed under one name.

* Any class IV team that submits application by June 6 will be a Class III team.

* Mandatory coaches meeting August 20 at 7:00 pm, Orangevale Community Center. (Bring goldenrod form).

* Seeding criteria given June 6.)

Old Business

1. CVYSL Host District VI Meeting, June 13, at Garcia's Restaurant (Madison near Manzanita). Begins 7:00pm. Email Kathy Rhymer if planning to attend for head count.

2. Scheduling for Cherry Island - Alan Tupper 726-0379.

3. Class IV Halloween Tournament:

League break for play will be Oct 27 -28, 2001, for Halloween Tournament. Robert Ford organizing. He would like to use fields of Citrus Hts club and Foothill club and needs 2 more large fields. Clubs providing fields take care of fields and manage snack bar, receive benefit from sales. League Ref coordinator should schedule referees. Field marshalls provided by teams not playing. If you can help Robert with coordination of event, please contact him.

4. Printers for Registrar and Assistant Registrar will cost $600. The printers need to handle card-stock.

Motion made to reimburse Mary Miles, Registrar, and Sue Lankford, Assistant Registrar, each $300 for printers. Motion passed.

5. Follow-up on last month's request from Mr. Carr and his son to obtain CVYSL release to allow son to play at San Juan league. Parents have spoken with Kathy Rhymer to explain their confusion about inter-league transfers. Kathy explained these views to the CVYSL Board members. District manager explained to Kathy that District does not allow releases under its policy but if CVYSL believed there was a misunderstanding, it could make an exception to the District policy.

Motion made that communication problems existed regarding this year's team selections. Motion not passed, with 2 abstentions.

Next PAD meeting will discuss issue and issue will probably go to District.

New Business

This year's soccer Pins: use same CVYSL logo that will be on shirts.

Good of the Game (nothing this month)
